SHOT AT A FLEEING THIEF.

Exciting Man Hunt in a Crowded Jersey City Street.

The Fugitive Caught as He Tried to Get Through a Fence.

Passengers hurrying for the 11.45 box on the Pennsylvania Railroad ferry from this city to New York this morning were startled by hearing shouts of thief!" and a pistol shot, and saw young man wearing a light suit of clothes and a black derby hat running up Montgomery street with a crowd fol-lowing him.

lowing him.

At the corner of Montgomery and Green streets the young man tried to jump through a hole in the fence leading into the yards of the railroad. As he dld so, a detective who was at the head of the crowd fired his revolver. The bullet passed through the leg of the man's trousers, but did not cut the fiesh. It brought him to a stop, however.

man's trousers, but did not cut the flesh. It brought him to a stop, however.

The detective snapped the handcuffs on him, and with the other man, who was led up by a second detective, was taken to Police Headquarters and charged with larceny.

The men were Lewis Nevin and Joseph Craig. Capt. J. Donovan, of the schooner Mary J. Chadwick, claimed that they stole three suits of clothes, a watch and chain and a small sum of money from his boat yesterday. The men were employed on the schooner.

The captain came to Jersey City this morning to report the robbery and saw the men on Exchange Place. He chased them and a crowd joined in. Detective Pearson and McBride also took a hand in the game. Nevin stopepd running, but Craig tried to get through the fence and was shot at. The stolen property was found in a satchel dropped by Craig.

SAFFORD CASE MUST BE TRIED. A Peculiar Matrimonial Targle in Superior Court.

Judge McAdam has decied a motion to dis-miss the action of Joseph T. Safford against his wife. Virginta Safford, to have his marriage to her annulled upon the ground that her former husband was living at the time they were murried. Safford married her on Jan. 26, 1880, at West Long Branch. They have a child named Joseph, fifteen months old. He avers that she teld him that she had procured a divorce from Franklin Harvey Cooke, to whom she had been married on Sept. 3, 1877, at Jersey City Heights, and that he has since discovered that Cooke is still living at 1826 Susquehanna avenue, Philadelphia, Pa.

Aira, Safford in her answer declares that at the time she married Safford nine years had clapsed since she last heard of Cooke, and she believed that he was dead, and she says that Safford knew that no decree of divorce had been granted to her. Franklin Harvey Cooke, to whom she had been
